

Code of Conduct Aqua for All

Aims of Aqua for All

Aqua for All, founded by Dutch water sector, is committed to support the improvement of access to drinking water and sanitation in Developing Countries by provision of resources, including expertise.

Definition

Integrity is the heart of our organization. This includes integrity of employed, contracted and voluntary staff as well as the integrity of local representatives. The organization is committed to maintain the trust by acting upright. Integrity means undiscussed, incorruptible, transparency and clarity upon motives and values. It is a criterion for a proper working organization.

Values

The next standards, values and principles from honesty, integrity and respect for people apply for Aqua for All as an organization and as involved people:

- We take care of our partners and we deliver the highest possible quality, fairly and ethically.
- We take responsibility for our volunteers/experts and we are committed to inform and support them in the best way possible.
- The volunteer/expert is expected to contribute according the following statement: voluntarily is not without engagement!

Expectations of employees, volunteers and local representatives

- Integrity, supervised by the expert coordinator, the project coordinators and the managing director.
- Respecting culture and customs, keeping up the dignity of all, and refraining from any discrimination and mis-use of power
- Active avoidance of conflict of interest, relating to additional jobs/employments or to business and of financial issues of oneself or any other person. An expert who is employed by another organization is obliged to inform the employer in advance about the activities for Aqua for All.
- No acceptance of rewards, services or presents of over € 50,-.
- Company assets and resources will be used cautiously and for legitimate work purposes only.
- No acceptance of offer, pay, demand or accept bribes.
- When a contact through the Aqua for All web-site or other expert mediation from Aqua for All has lead to an advisory job, Aqua for All will be informed, specifying whether there is remuneration and whether there is a role to be played by Aqua for All

Examples of inappropriate behavior

- On a trip an expert takes a suitcase filled with seeds, which he sells at the destination (mingling the Aqua for All activities with own commercial activities).
- Arranging a number of internships at a “friendly” company in order to provide scarce workers.
- Spending time on acquisition for himself or any other person during an activity for Aqua for All
- Working hours are used for private goals.

When in doubt, the management will be consulted.

Consequences of inappropriate behavior

- When under suspicion of violating this code, the management will approach the party involved.
- If necessary, the management will adjourn any relationship with the party involved.